END OF A NOBLE LIFE,

The Death of Mrs. Alexander Walters a National Bereavement - A Helpful, Loving and Faithful Wife.

"This woman was full of good works, and alms deeds she did.'

Mrs. Emeline Virginia Walters, Wife of Bishop A. Wallers of Jersey City, departed this life Thursday meraing, Feb 27, 1902 at eleven twenty o'clock Mrs. Wal ers was the only daughter of Richard and Eliza Bird, and was born at Stamford, Conn., October 8, Sae was educated in the best schools of New England under such famous instructors as Prof. W. W. Ginn of Vermont and Proi. A. P. Bea's of Mass After completing the course at the High School of Stamford Conn, she took a business course in Mrs. Lamb's School of stenopraphy and typewriting of New York City and after graduating from this school she was employed in the Edgar Printing Co. of New York City, a white establishment of high standing, as proof reader, and subsequent to this she was employed as proof reader of the New York Enterprise.

For eight years she was employed as clerk in the A. M. E. Zion Book Concon of New York City and was elected and served as official stenographer and typewriter of the two sessions of the A. M. E. Zion General Conference: She was married to the Bishop A. Walters, Jan. 6 1898, from which time she was found to be a loving, faithful and helpful wife; indeed an invaluable assistant to the Bishop in all his literary sentatives will always "get there." work up until within four months of her death, when disease rendered her physically unable.

Mrs. Walters accompanied her husband, the Bishop, who was a member of the delegation representing the A. M. E Zon church which made a tour through parts of Eagland, Scotland, Belgium and France last summer, and who also attended the Ecumenical Conference of Mothodism at the historical City Roads Chapel London, where the founder of Mathodism, John Wesley, spect his last labors Many of you will remember the graphfiic account she gave of the trip through the columns of the Star of Zion after her re turn.

Mrs Walters health was undermined by a fatal disease, which was three or four years in developing. She was operated upon twice by some of the most skillfull physicians of the country, bu they were unable to stop the rave gas of the disease. Every effort was put forta to preserve her life, but Divide Providence seemed to have ordered otherwise.

During her last illness, she was confined to her bed for about two mon'hs, during which time she bore her a'fl ctions with great patience and fort tude When she was informed by her physicians that "it was impossible for her to recover, she with perfect composure of mind said, "The will of the L rd must be done." Then she called the members of the family into the room and made a distribution of certain effect to them as she desired,

On the morning of the day bef re she died, Mrs. Walters sang in a clear and distinct voice the entire hymn of "Jesus lover of my soul" without a break. From this time she gradually sank until the end came eleven twen-

Educational Etchings,

In pravious years Waters' Institute has been seeking students, but now she is seeking money with which to erect buildings to accommodate her increased number of students.

Mr Callowa) and associates are in the employ of the German government, and after resting for a short wnile he expects to return to Africa with additional helpers.

25 000 acres of land are to be sold for school purposes in Alabama. It seems that four state schools at Troy, Florence, Hun sville and Montgomery will enjoy the proceeds. The committee on public lands in Washington has prepaired a majority report to that effect. Representative Taylor and Wiley are pushing the matter.

The only eclored contestant at the University of Pennsylvania indoor meet at the Academy of Music, Thurs day, February 27th, was John B. Tay lor Jr., of the Central High School. Won the 440 yd, dash from soratch. Made the fa test time of the evening. Just give us a chauce and our repre-

CAPTURES CHICAGO.

Mrs. J. Silone Yates' Versatile Accomplishments Inspire Her Sisters in the City by the Lake,

Chicago, Ill., Special.—Two thousand people greeted Mrs. Josephine Silone Yates, President National Association Colored Women, at the Institutional Church and Social Settlement, 3825 Dearborn street, Sunday afternoon, February 16, where she addressed the Men's Forum in a most interesting manner on The Achievements of the Negro In the Nineteenth Century."

The Woman's Club of the Church, Mrs. Eva Lewis, President, held a most enjoyable informal reception at the close of the meeting.

In the evening at Bethel A. M. E. Church, under the auspices of the "Sorosis," Mrs. R. E. Moore, President, a large crowd of appreciative men and women listened to words of wisdom and practical advice, as the gifted speaker spoke of the "Evolution of the Negro."

Mrs. Yates left for Washington, D. C. on Monday night after an eloquent address on "Frederick Douglass" at Quinn Chapel, for the benefit of the Kindergarten.

The women of Illinois are very proud of their cultured President. She is at times a welcome visitor in Chicago. While in the city she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Roberts.

Many social functions are planned in honor of Mrs. Yates upon her return, chief among them is a "Club Dinner," where a hundred or more club women will sit at table, indulge in toasts, after dinner speeches, and listen in turn to an account of "Two Women's Meetings" as seen by their honored guest. "THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE NA-TIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE"

Which held its first convention in Boston, Mass., August 23-24, 1900. BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, President and Founder.

This convention was the first National Convention of colored business men ever held in this or any other country. Every e of business was represented: the farmer, the banker, the eac ator, the doctor, the lawyer, the manufacturer, the author, the merchant and rulers of municipalities. The addresses delivered and papers read are all in this book besides over fifty cuts or delegates and others, which makes it a valuable souvenir of the convention.
